Nonpartisan Races

All school board, hospital district and soil and water conservation district candidates are elected at large. Therefore every registered voter is eligible to vote in those races.

Applications are available at the Supervisor of Elections office or online at www.voteindianriver.com or by calling our office at 772-226–3444.

Three Ways to Vote in Indian River County

1. At Your Precinct On Election Day

Florida law says you must vote in your correct precinct on Election Day. Your voter information card will specify the precinct number and will specify polling location for your precinct. The polls are open from 7 a.m.- 7 p.m. If you are unsure of your polling place, you can go to the Supervisor of Election's website at www.voteindianriver.com or contact our office at 772-226-3440.

2. Early Voting

Early voting is held for 10-15 days prior to each primary and general election. You may vote at any designated early voting site in Indian River County. Voting early is just like voting on Election Day.

3. Vote By Absentee/Mail Ballot

Voting by absentee/mail is a service offered by the Supervisor of Elections for registered voters who do not wish to vote at their precinct polling location on Election Day or do not choose to take advantage of Early Voting. Voting by absentee/mail has never been easier. A request for an absentee/mail ballot can be made in person, by mail, by telephone or you can request one online at www.voteindianriver.com. An absentee/mail ballot may be requested for a specific election or for all elections through two general election cycles. Voted absentee/mail ballots must be received at our office by 7 p.m. on Election Day.

Absentee/mail ballots cannot be forwarded. Initial mail-out of absentee/mail ballots for all military and all overseas voters is 45 days prior to each election. (Section 101.62, Florida Statutes)

Marked ballots must be mailed or delivered in person reaching the Supervisor of Elections office not later than 7 p.m. on the day of the election. Do not return your voted mail ballot to a polling place.

If you have obtained an absentee/mail ballot but want to vote in your precinct on Election Day, you should take the ballot with you to the polls, whether or not it has been marked so that it can be cancelled. If you do not have the ballot with you, the poll worker will contact the Supervisor of Elections office to verify that the outstanding absentee/mail has not been returned as voted. If the ballot was not returned as voted, you may vote in person.

Picking Up Ballots For Another Person

Any qualified voter may designate in writing another person to pick up a mail ballot for the voter. Carry out ballots are available to a designee up to five days prior to the election. The designee may only pick up two (2) mail ballots per election other than his or her own, except for the ballots picked up for members of his or her immediate family. The designee must provide picture identification, the written authorization from the voter and complete an affidavit. Absentee/mail ballots may not be delivered on Election Day unless there is an emergency. An affidavit affirming the facts will be necessary to allow delivery of Absentee Ballot.

Deadline to Request Absentee/Mail Ballot

A request for an absentee/mail ballot to be mailed to a voter must be received no later than 5 p.m. on the sixth day before the election by the supervisor of elections. The supervisor of elections shall mail absentee ballots to voters requesting ballots by such deadline no later than 4 days before the election.

Vote By Mail

Who Can Vote by Absentee/Mail Ballot

All qualified voters are permitted to vote by mail under Florida law.
(See Sections 97.021(1) and 101.62, Florida Statutes)

How to Request an Absentee/Mail Ballot

A request for an absentee/mail ballot can be made in person, by mail, by telephone or by requesting the ballot on our website: www.voteindianriver.com. Only the voter or a designated member of his or her immediate family or legal guardian can request a mail ballot for a voter. Immediate family means the voter's spouse or the parent, child, grandparent, or sibling of the voter. The person requesting an absentee/mail ballot must disclose:

- The name of the voter for whom the ballot is requested
- The voter's address
- The voter's date of birth
- The voter's signature (written request only)

If the voter has designated an immediate family member or legal guardian to request an absentee/mail ballot for him or herself, that designee must provide the above information in addition to the following:

- The requester's name
- The requester's address
- The requester's driver's license number, if available
- The requester's signature (written request only)
- The requester's relationship to voter

A written request signed by the voter is required if the absentee ballot is to be mailed to an address other than the one on file with the Elections office.

If the absentee voter forgets to sign their absentee ballot certificate, the voter can "cure" their missing signature if he/she completes an absentee ballot affidavit and provides an ID by 5 PM on the day before the election.

First-Time Voters Who Register By Mail (continued)

Instead of the photo ID, you may provide a copy of a current and valid utility bill, bank statement, government paycheck, or other government document containing your name and current residence address. Do not send original identification documents to the Supervisor of Elections.

If you vote absentee and fall into one of the following categories, you are not required to provide the identification required under the previous paragraph:

- Persons 65 years of age or older.
- Persons with a temporary or permanent physical disability.
- Members of the uniformed services on active duty and their spouses and dependents, who, by reason of such active duty, are absent from the county on Election Day.
- Members of the Merchant Marine and their spouses and dependents, who, by reason of service in the Merchant Marine are absent from the county on Election Day.
- Are residing outside the United States but are eligible to vote in Florida

(See Section 97.0535 Florida Statutes)

Placement on Inactive Voter Rolls and Removal

If the Supervisor of Elections receives information from the post office or another source indicating your residence may have changed to another address in Florida, your registration record will be changed to reflect that new address. You will then be mailed an address change notice asking that you verify or correct the new address. If the information shows you have moved outside the state, you will be sent an address confirmation final notice. If you do not respond to the address confirmation final notice within 30 days, your registration status will be changed to inactive. You can restore your status to active at any time if you update your voter registration record, go to the polls to vote, or request an absentee ballot. However, if you do not do any of these things after two general (federal) elections from the date you were made inactive, you will be removed from the registration records and must register again in order to vote.
(See Section 98.065, Florida Statutes)

Registration Is Public Record

In Florida, voter registration records are open to the public and may be examined or copied by any person. However, the following registration information is confidential: location of voter's place of registration, location of place of registration update, Social Security number, driver's license number and Florida identification number. A voter's signature may be viewed but may not be copied.
(See Section 97.0585, Florida Statutes)

Changes in Address, Name or Party

Address changes by phone can only be accepted if the call is made by the person with the address change.

- Generally, you cannot vote in any precinct other than the one in which you live and are registered. However, if you are temporarily living outside your home county and have no permanent address in the county, you can remain registered in the county but you will be assigned the precinct that contains the main office of the Supervisor of Elections. You will not be able to vote in municipal elections.

- If you are making an address change at the polls on election day within the county, you will be required to update your information by completing a Voter Registration Application before being allowed to vote.

Voters without party affiliation are not eligible to vote for major party candidates in a primary election. However, Article VI, Section 5(b), Florida Constitution, provides that if all candidates have the same party affiliation and the winner will have no opposition in the general election, all qualified voters, regardless of party affiliation, may vote in the primary election for that office. This is known as a Universal Primary Contest.

Nonpartisan judicial and school board offices, nonpartisan special districts, and local referendum questions are included in some primary elections. All registered voters, including those without party affiliation are entitled to vote in nonpartisan races/ issues. At general elections, all voters receive the same ballot and may vote for any candidate or question on the ballot.

(See Sections 100.051, 100.061 and 101.021, Florida Statutes, and Article VI, Section 5(b), Florida Constitution)
