SUPERVISOR OF ELECTIONS OFFICE TO OFFER CANDIDATE WORKSHOP

Indian River County, FL—The Indian River County Supervisor of Elections will be hosting a Candidate Workshop in preparation for the 2020 election cycle. Individuals interested in running for public office can learn what is required to become a candidate. The class will be offered on Wednesday, November 20 at the Supervisor of Elections office, 4375 43rd Avenue, Vero Beach. The two-hour complimentary workshop will provide important information about filing and qualifying for office, and campaigning for elective office.

“Candidate workshops are open to first time candidates, campaign managers, campaign treasurers, long-standing incumbents, members of the public, or anyone interested in the campaign process,” said Leslie Swan, Supervisor of Elections. “Election laws are constantly changing, and it is imperative that candidates and campaign treasurers are familiar with the most up-to-date election laws.”

Interested parties must register for the candidate workshop no later than the Friday before the workshop by emailing jmarkley@voteindianriver.com or calling (772) 226-3440.
