Campaign Finance Rules...

Let's talk about Campaign Finance

Common violations filed with FEC:

Taking contributions / making expenditures before filing DS-DE 9 form

Giving incomplete or false information on campaign reports (others are watching)

Spending campaign funds that have already been obligated

Treasurer's Duties

- Keep Detailed Accounts -

Deposit funds within 5 business days

Bank slip to contain name of each contributor

Preserve accounts (term of office = years preserved)

IMPORTANT

It is imperative that the Campaign Treasurer reviews every bank statement when it is received

All transactions must be recorded in the campaign finance report

- Deposits
- Expenditures
- Bank fees
- Other Fees (such as Pay Pal)

Very helpful if campaign treasurer has some basic bookkeeping and computer skills

Keeping accurate records will insure the ease of the Termination Report !!!!!

Be aware

Campaign reports must be filed on time by Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer

Fined for:

- Not filing a report

- Incomplete report

- Inaccurate report

- Fines must be paid from candidate's personal funds

Campaign accounts can be inspected before, during, after election by rep. of DOE or FEC

When are reports due?

Reports are filed on 10th day following end of each calendar month after filing for office

Frequency of reports increases after qualifying period

Non-election year – 12 reports due

Election year – reports increase to 20 reports due

*statewide candidates – check with DOE for reporting dates

Fines are hefty for late reports

First 3 days
= $50 per day

After first 3 days
= $500 per day

Reports immediately preceding Primary & GE
= $500 per day

Fines cannot exceed 25% of total receipts / expenditures, whichever is greater

Fines must be paid within 20 days of notice of payment due

No contributions or expenditures in reporting period?

Required to file a report:

“Waiver of Report”

Incomplete Reports

All reports are accepted on a conditional basis

Will notify why report is incomplete

Addendum due within 7 days

Addendum to include info. to complete report

Campaign Finance – Contributions...

Campaign Finance – Contributions

What is considered a contribution?

A gift, subscription, conveyance, deposit, loan, payment or distribution of money or anything of value...including contributions in-kind, made for the purpose of influencing the results of an election

Exceptions are:

- Services by volunteers (no compensation)
- Editorial endorsements

Important:

- Regardless of the size of the contribution, all contributions must be reported
- Reporting requirements for contributions are the same whether 50¢ or $1000

Reporting Contributions

Reporting for each contribution, must list:

- Full name
- Address
- Specific occupation (individual), if contribution is more than $100
- Principal type of business (corporation), if contribution is more than $100

- Candidate
- Retention as a Judge of a District Court of Appeal
- County Court Judge or Circuit Judge
- Legislative office
- Multicounty office
- Countywide office
- OR in any election conducted on less than a countywide basis

Candidates may not:

Accept contributions after the date he or she withdraws his or her candidacy, is defeated, or becomes unopposed or is elected

More. . .

Contribution limits do not apply to:

- Contributions by a candidate to his or her own campaign

Remember!!

The Primary and General Elections are separate elections

Debit and credit card contributions

A candidate may accept contributions via:

- Credit Card
- Debit Card
- Money Order

Categorized as a “check” for reporting purposes

Cash Contributions

A cash contribution or a contribution by means of a cashiers check (in aggregate from the same contributor) may not be in excess of $50 per election

Note: Money orders and traveler's checks are not considered “cash”

In-kind contributions

Anything of value made for the purpose of influencing the results of an election

In-kind contribution must be reported using a fair market value

In-kind contributions are subject to contribution limits

Candidates may give unlimited in-kind donations to their own campaign

EXCEPTION

Exceptions to in-kind contributions:

- Personal services provided w/o compensation by volunteers
- Independent expenditures, as defined in Section 106.011(5)F.S.
- Endorsements of 3 or more candidates by PC's or political parties

Anonymous contributions

Must be reported as anonymous contribution

A letter should be submitted to the filing officer explaining the circumstances surrounding acceptance of anonymous contribution

Candidate cannot spend the anonymous contribution, but at the end of campaign, can donate to appropriate entity under 106.141 F.S.

Joint Accounts

When a candidate receives a contribution in the form of a check drawn on a joint account, the person signing the check is considered the contributor

Who signed the check?

Fund Raisers

All monies and contributions received from campaign fund raisers are campaign contributions

-Subject to contribution limits

Unauthorized contributions

Any contribution received on the day of the election or less than 5 days before the day of the election must be returned to the contributor and may not be used or expended by or on behalf of the candidate

Returning contributions

If the contribution has been deposited into the campaign account:

- Report the contribution returned on Form DS-DE 2

- Write a check from the campaign account to the contributor for the amount of contribution

- Date
- Purpose of expenditure
- Total amt. withdrawn from total spent from petty cash
- Total sum of expenditures during the reporting period

Reimbursing expenses made in connection with a campaign

Reimbursement – Reimbursement for authorized expenses made in connection with the campaign

For example, Candidate Smith paid for printing of campaign signs with his own money. A check to reimburse him for the cost would be recorded as a Reimbursement

More . . .

This type of reimbursement will require two entries under itemized expenditures:

First entry will show the person's name/address who is being reimbursed

- the purpose
- expenditure type (will be “reimbursement”)
- amount of the expenditure

Second entry will show the name/address of the entity who was paid

- the purpose (example: postage and postcards)
- amount of the payment
- this entry will be recorded as an expense using the dropdown box (“Distribution”)

Note: A distribution transaction does NOT add to your report totals – these transactions are only used to report pro-rata amounts of an already recorded Expense transaction

Checks and expenditures

A candidate / other individual may be reimbursed for expenses by a check drawn on the campaign account

Reimbursement must be reported

Fund raisers

All expenses with respect to a campaign fund raiser are campaign expenditures

Living expenses

A candidate / spouse of a candidate may not use campaign funds to defray normal living expenses

Only expenses actually incurred during the campaign for transportation, meals and lodging may be reimbursed

Petty cash funds

- A campaign treasurer may provide a petty cash fund
- Campaign treasurer must write a check drawn on the primary campaign account for petty cash
- Petty cash may only be used for office supplies, transportation expenses, and other necessities

More. . .

A candidate must:

- Spend petty cash in amounts of less than $100
- Report total amount withdrawn / spent from petty cash per report period
- Keep complete records of petty cash

More on petty cash...

- Each expenditure does not have to be reported individually
- Do not mix cash contribution with petty cash
- Do not use petty cash for the purchase of time, space, or services from any communications media

More. . .

From date a candidate appoints his or her campaign treasurer until the last day of qualifying for the office:

- Petty cash maximum is $500 per calendar quarter

After qualifying is over and until the election:

- Petty cash maximum is $100 per week for local candidates

Using campaign funds after election

Campaign funds may be used after Election Night AS LONG AS the candidate obligates the funds BEFORE Election Night

Otherwise, the candidate would have to use their own funds (to throw a victory party, for instance)

Prior to disposing of surplus funds

Any candidate required to dispose of funds may, before such disposition, be reimbursed by the campaign, in full or in part, for any reported:

- Contributions to campaign by the candidate
- Loans to the campaign by the candidate

More. . .

If a candidate filed an Affidavit of Undue Burden
(unable to pay the fee for petition verification)

They must reimburse any waived petition verification fee to the state or local government

Expending surplus funds

Once a candidate withdraws, becomes unopposed, is eliminated, or elected to office, he or she may only expend funds from the campaign account by:

- Purchase “thank you” advertising for up to 75 days after candidate withdraws, becomes unopposed, eliminated, or elected to office
- Pay for items which were obligated before candidate withdrew, became unopposed, was eliminated, or elected to office
- Pay for expenditures necessary to close down the campaign office and to prepare final campaign reports
- Give funds to the county executive committee of a political party per 106.141F.S.

Surplus funds and termination reports

A termination report must be filed within 90 days of withdrawing as a candidate, becoming unopposed, elected, or eliminated

Funds must be dispersed - account needs to be closed

More...

Funds may be dispersed by any of the following means, or a combination of:

- Return pro rata to each contributor the funds that have not been spent or obligated
- Donate the excess funds to a 501(c)(3) charity or organization
- Give the funds to the candidate's political party

More. . .

Give the funds to:

- Candidate for state office, to the state to be deposited in the General Revenue Fund
- Candidate for office of a political subdivision, to such political subdivision, to be deposited in their general fund
- Transfer some funds to an office account and file quarterly reports until all funds are depleted
- A candidate elected to state office may retain up to $20,000 in campaign account for use in next campaign for the same office

If a refund check is received after all surplus funds have been disposed of:

- The check may be endorsed by the candidate and the refund disposed of pursuant to Section 106.141 F.S.
- An amended termination report must be filed with the filing officer

Early Voting totals and Vote-by-Mail Ballot totals –
Released within 30 minutes

Updated every 45 minutes thereafter

REMEMBER

You, as the candidate, are responsible for all aspects of your campaign!

Please remember to take the time to look around our polling sites before you leave on Election Day and pick up any remaining signs, flyers, trash, etc.

Our office is very fortunate to have such nice facilities available for us to rent on Election Day

Thank You
And
Good Luck

GO FOR IT !

GOOD LUCK !
