“Democracy Days” is an innovative countywide youth voting program that is aimed at actively engaging high school students in the elections process. The class is designed to teach students why voting matters.

The 45-minute lesson plan uses music, pop culture, video, classroom discussion and a mock election to teach young people skills to navigate the elections process. During the program, students will be given the opportunity to register to vote.

The information that is shared with these students during the Democracy Days program will help them know what to expect when the time comes for them to vote.
