POLL WORKER APPRECIATION PARTY

Indian River County, FL – The Supervisor of Elections office is excited to announce a very special day for the Poll Workers of Indian River County. On Thursday, December 12, 2013, more than 200 residents of Indian River County who volunteer to work the polls on Election Day were invited to the Supervisor of Elections office to be recognized for their service.

These dedicated citizens have served our county well as the Elections Office has conducted five elections in two years. Together they have processed almost 100,000 voters and worked approximately 80 hours between the Presidential Preference Primary, Primary, General and two Municipal Elections. To thank them for their commitment to Indian River County, the Supervisor of Elections office is hosting a Poll Worker Appreciation Brunch.

Peter O'Bryan, Chairman of the Indian River County Board of County Commissioners was in attendance to present a special proclamation to the poll workers for their service and dedication to the community. Vice-Chairman, Wesley Davis, Commissioner Flescher and Commissioner Zorc were also present to share a few words of appreciation.

Indian River County poll workers enjoyed a fun-filled morning at the Elections Office, complete with American History BINGO, and a prize raffle. The Elections Office would like to send a special thank you to the following businesses for their generous donations to the Poll Worker Appreciation Party: Calico Corners, Vero Beach Citrus Museum, Mel Fisher's Treasure Museum, Wabasso Tackle Shop, Seacoast National Bank, Swap Til You Drop, Florida Eye Institute, Marine Bank & Trust, Costa d'Este Beach Resort, Vero Beach Museum of Art, Ocean Grill, Marriott Springhill Suites, and Vero Beach Hotel & Spa.
