Election Day Reminders

Indian River County, FL – Below is all the information voters should know before heading to the polls on Tuesday, November 6, 2018 for the General Election.

- Election Day polls are open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. You must vote at your assigned polling place on Election Day.
- To verify your polling location, visit VoteIndianRiver.com and click “Find My Precinct” or call 226-3440.
- Voters must present current and valid, photo and signature ID when voting, such as a Florida Driver’s License. If voters do not present proper ID, they may vote a provisional ballot.
- New registrations may not be accepted for this election. New applications were due into the Supervisor of Elections office by October 9, 2018.
- Voters who have moved into Indian River County from another Florida county should report their new address to the Supervisor’s office before Tuesday, November 6, 2018 to expedite the voting process. Address changes within Florida can be made on Election Day but may cause slight voting delays.
- Voter turnout statistics are also available prior to and throughout Election Day at VoteIndianRiver.com. Select 2018 General Election Turnout to view a summary of mail ballot, early voting, and Election Day turnout. Statistics may be filtered by party, date, or precinct.
- Election results will air on cable channel 13 in Vero Beach, cable channel 25 and U-Verse channel 99 in Sebastian and on the Indian River County Government cable channel 27.
- Up-to-the-minute election night reporting will also be available at VoteIndianRiver.com. Simply click the Live Election Results Button. Results will be updated periodically throughout the evening until all precincts are counted. For the most up-to-date results, remember to “refresh” the webpage.
