Election Worker Appreciation Day

Indian River County, FL – On Tuesday, Feb. 20, 2018, more than 300 residents of Indian River County who volunteer to work the polls on Election Day were invited to the Supervisor of Elections office to be recognized for their service. Elections staff rolled out the red carpet for our election workers during an appreciation celebration featuring a Hollywood Academy Awards theme.

These steadfast citizens have served our county well as the Elections office has conducted five elections in the past two years. Collectively, our election workers have processed almost 160,000 voters and have worked approximately 60 hours between the Presidential Presence Primary, Primary, General and Municipal Elections.

A proclamation declaring Feb. 20, 2018, as “Election Worker Appreciation Day” was presented by the Board of County Commissioners. Following the proclamation ceremony, elections workers were treated to a light lunch. Academy awards were presented to election workers who have reached milestones in their service to our county.

Indian River County has a devoted team of election workers who perform great during each election, and it was our privilege to recognize the invaluable service that they provide to our county. The Elections Office staff would like to express our sincere gratitude for the generosity of our local businesses who sponsored food and prizes for the event: Marine Bank and Trust, Costa d’Este Beach Resort, Ocean Grill, Napier & Rollin Attorneys At Law, Target, Kimpton Vero Beach Hotel and Spa, Ruby Tuesday, GNC, Orangetheory Fitness, Mulligans, Rossway Swan Tierney Baryy Lacey & Oliver, A Pampered Life, The Driftwood Resort, AMC Theatre, Vero Bowl, American Icon Brewery, Applebee’s, Bob Evans, Cracker Barrel, Eden, Majestic Theatre,
