POSSIBLE ELECTION RECOUNT

Indian River County, FL – The Indian River County Supervisor of Elections office is awaiting word from the Secretary of State regarding a recount for several races on the 2018 General Election ballot. If the order for a recount is issued by the Secretary of State sometime Saturday, the Indian River County Supervisor of Elections will be conducting a machine recount on Sunday, November 11th beginning at 8 a.m. If the order for a recount is not issued until Sunday, the recount is set for Monday, November 12th beginning at 8 a.m.

A machine recount is ordered by the Secretary of State per Florida Statute 102.141(7), which states if the unofficial returns reflect that a candidate for any office was defeated or eliminated by one-half of a percent, a machine recount shall be ordered of the votes cast with respect to such office.

The public and press may observe the machine recount, which will be held at the Supervisor of Elections office at 4375 43rd Avenue, Vero Beach.
