THE SUPERVISOR OF ELECTIONS OFFICE IS LAUNCHING A NEW CAMPAIGN, "SPEAK UP!" TO ENCOURAGE CITIZENS TO HAVE A VOICE IN THE ELECTION PROCESS

Supervisor of Elections, Leslie Swan, announced the unveiling of the new and exciting "Speak Up!" campaign. The campaign is in response to an effort to promote voter awareness. Anticipating a busy upcoming election season, the Elections office is gearing up for a county-wide blitz of voter registration drives.

Representatives from the Supervisor of Elections office will come to your business, civic organization, neighborhood association, or school to host a voter registration drive. All of the necessary materials to conduct the on-site registration drive will be provided by the Elections office. In addition to registering to vote, opportunities are available to update voter information including name and address changes, party affiliation changes, or signature updates. Absentee ballot request forms will also be available.

With your help, the Supervisor of Election Office can ensure the citizens of Indian River County have a voice and can take advantage of every opportunity to participate in the election process. If you are interested in hosting a voter registration drive, please contact our Technical Programs Coordinator, Stephanie Sonberg at (772) 226-3446 or by email at ssonberg@voteindianriver.com. She will be happy to schedule a date and time that is most convenient for you.
