ELECTIONS OFFICE TO OFFER CANDIDATE WORKSHOPS

INDIAN RIVER COUNTY- Before campaign season heats up, voters interested in running for public office can learn what it takes to become a candidate. Indian River County Supervisor of Elections will offer a Candidate Workshop on Thursday, November 21, 2013 from 9-11 a.m. at the Supervisor of Elections office located at 4375 43rd Avenue in Vero Beach. A second Candidate Workshop will be offered on February 6, 2014.

The workshops are open to candidates, campaign managers, campaign treasurers and members of the public. "Candidate workshops are open to anyone interested in running for office, whether they are a first time candidate or a long-standing incumbent. Election laws are constantly changing, and it is imperative that candidates are familiar with the new legislation," said Leslie Swan, Supervisor of Elections. The two hour program focuses on the fundamentals of becoming and being a candidate and introduces participants to candidate qualifying and reporting, campaign finance, political advertising and ethical conduct, among other important topics.

Interested parties must register for the candidate workshop no later than November 19th. To register, please contact Kathy Crockett by emailing KCrockett@voteindianriver.com or by calling (772) 226-3440. There is no cost to attend.
