Supervisor of Elections Office Sends Financial Disclosure Notices

Indian River County, FL – The Supervisor of Elections Office announces that all persons in Indian River County who are required to file financial disclosure forms should be on the lookout in the coming days for a packet from the Elections Office. On May 21, 250 packets were mailed to county residents who are required to file Form 1's. Florida law requires all elected and appointed local public officers and employees to complete a Form 1 Statement of Financial Interests. The Elections Office is responsible for providing and collecting the disclosure forms and official notices to each filing individual.

The completed Form 1 is to be returned to the Indian River County Supervisor of Elections office at 4375 43rd Avenue, Vero Beach, Florida 32967. A self-addressed return envelope is provided in the packet. The filer may also email their completed Form 1 to Info@VoteIndianRiver.com. The filing deadline is July 1. Instructions for completing the Form 1 are included in the packet. Please direct all questions to SMcAuliffe@VoteIndianRiver.Com.
