Indian River County Supervisor of Elections Announces Launch of Redesigned Website

Indian River County, FL - Indian River County Supervisor of Elections has launched its newly revamped website, VoteIndianRiver.com. This redesigned site offers a responsive layout, easy navigation, and enhanced tools and search functions that are designed to allow voters a user-friendly experience.

The website's refreshed and simplified look, combined with enhanced content, improved search functionality, and optimization for all devices allows Indian River County voters to easily interact with the Elections Office.

"The new website uses enriched graphics and an updated user interface to improve the website experience for voters in the county," Supervisor of Elections Leslie Swan said.

The redesign includes aesthetic enhancements to provide a more engaging user experience and enhanced navigation to help visitors easily find the information they are seeking.
